

The Saskatchewan Network for Alternatives to Pesticides (SNAP) has updated and upgraded its web site!

You can now access SNAP's web site on your mobile device. Fully Apple compatible!

Find out about our upcoming April Organic Gardening classes at the Regina public library!

Read about The City of Regina report to reduce herbicides in parks and SNAP presentations on the issue.

Find relevant information on pesticides, pesticides and health, Organic gardening and Organic land use Training for Municipal Officials or Transitioning Landscapers classes.

New sections under Information on

- Action- How to
- Pesticides 101
- Pesticide Fact Sheets
- Wildlife

Updated and lots of new content in

- Information/ alternatives
- information/ health
- and throughout the site

Links to Facebook, g+ and twitter!

Like our web page!

For more information,

Paule Hjertaas,

SNAP President and Spokesperson,

snapinfo@sasktel.net

306-584-2835